

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Guangzhou, People's Republic of China

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO IMMIGRANT VISA APPLICANTS CONCERNING PROCESSING OPTIONS

E-Mail/Electronic Processing Eligibility: Electronic Processing is currently optional for the following visa categories at Consulate General Guangzhou:

- CR1 Conditional Spouse of United States Citizen
- CR2 Conditional Child of United States Citizen
- F1 Unmarried Sons & Daughters of United States Citizen
- F2A Spouses and Unmarried Children of Permanent Residents
- F2B Unmarried Sons & Daughters of Permanent Residents
- F3 Married Sons & Daughters of United States Citizen
- F4 Brothers & Sisters of United States Citizen
- IR1 Spouse of United States Citizen
- IR2 Child of United States Citizen
- IR5 Parent of United States Citizen

Changes to your Case Number: If you join the Electronic Processing Program, you will be notified that your petition number has been changed. The first 3 characters of your new petition number will be GZO followed by a new series of 10 numbers. The GZO prefix signifies that the petition is eligible for Electronic Processing. Your petition will still be processed in Guangzhou.

Your Next Step: If your petition is eligible please click Optional Electronic Processing to join the program, or click Register an Address and Agent to continue with conventional paper processing.