We still haven't received your 2006 Form 1040

We're holding your 2007 tax refund

Our records show that you didn't file your 2006 Form 1040. As a result, we're holding your 2007 tax refund until we can determine whether you owe additional taxes for 2006.

Please file your 2006 tax return, or we'll determine your tax for you.

What you need to do

File your 2006 tax return, along with any supporting forms and schedules, by March 4, 2009. Mail your return to:

Internal Revenue Service

If we don't hear from you

If we don't receive your return or a valid reason for not filing by March 4, 2009, we'll determine taxes for you based on information we've received from third parties. This means you may not receive certain exemptions, deductions, or credits that you would otherwise receive if you filed your own return.

Next steps

Once you file your 2006 tax return, we'll determine if you owe additional taxes. This may take up to 12 weeks.

If you owe tax or other debts we're required to collect, we may apply all or part of your refund to the amount you owe. You'll receive a notice explaining how we applied the money and a check for the remaining balance, if there is one.
