Information and Instructions General Information

Ordinarily, the IRS has 3 years after an income tax, gift tax, or estate tax return has been filed to assess tax and demand payment of any deficiency. The executor representing a decedent's estate or a fiduciary of a decedent's trust may request a discharge from personal liability for the decedent's income, gift, and estate taxes. Nine months, or 6 months in the case of a fiduciary's request, after the IRS's receipt of the request for discharge or the earlier payment of any amount determined by the IRS to be owed, the executor or fiduciary will be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in such tax thereafter found to be due. In certain instances where the date for payment of the estate tax has been extended, the IRS may require a bond as a condition for discharge.

An executor means the executor or administrator of a decedent, who was appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States.

When To File

Do not file Form 5495 requesting a discharge from income or gift tax liability until after you file the tax returns listed on the front of this form. If you are requesting a discharge from personal liability for the estate tax, you may attach this form to Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, or you may file this form any time during the 3-year period following the date the Form 706 is filed. You must submit a separate request for discharge from personal liability for any tax returns filed after this Form 5495.

Where To File

Send your request to the Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed the returns listed on the front of this form. If you are requesting taxes reported on multiple returns filed at different Service Centers, you must mail separate Forms 5495 to each Service Center to receive a discharge from liability for each type of tax. If an estate tax return was filed, file Form 5495 for all taxes at the address where the estate tax return was filed.

What To File

This Form 5495 provides spaces for all information required to process a request for discharge from personal liability under IRC section 2204 or 6905. Attach to your request the information and documentation requested on Form 5495. If you are submitting this request with your estate tax return, you will not be required to provide an additional copy. If, however, this form is filed after Form 706, then a copy of pages 1–3 and Schedules A through I of Form 706 must be attached. If you are a fiduciary requesting discharge from personal liability under section 2204, check the "Other" box and include a copy of the trust instrument(s), a list of assets transferred from this decedent to the trust, and any other relevant information. If you prefer to use your own format, your written request must list the same information as requested on this form and include the applicable attachments.
